COLSA Corporation Receives Northrop Grumman's 2007 Supplier Excellence Award

COLSA Corporation was honored at Northrop Grumman's Third Annual Supplier Excellence Award ceremony on October 23, 2007, at the Ritz Carlton in Tyson's Corner, VA, by receiving one of ten Supplier Excellence Awards. The award is presented to those companies whose technical innovation and quality products and services significantly contribute to the success of Northrop Grumman's programs and its customers.

The Supplier Excellence Awards recognize outstanding suppliers in four categories: service suppliers, development suppliers, production suppliers, and socio-economic suppliers. COLSA, a socio-economic supplier, met the highest criteria for delivery, quality, cost and schedule management, and customer satisfaction.
