COLSA Corporation has been selected as a recipient of the 2010 NASA Small Business Industry Award (SBIA)

COLSA Corporation has been selected as a recipient of the 2010 NASA Small Business Industry Award (SBIA) for NASA Marshall Space Flight Center in the category of Small Business Prime Contractor of the Year. COLSA Management Representatives will attend the 3rd Annual NASA Small Business Symposium and Awards Ceremony to be recognized and accept this award.

The Symposium provides an opportunity for small businesses to learn about NASA programs and initiatives as well as hear from the U.S. Small Business Administration, and prime contractor representatives.

The event will take place on November 30 and December 1, 2010, in the Washington, DC metropolitan area. As a recipient of the Center-level SBIA, COLSA will be considered a candidate for the Agency-level SBIA which will be announced during the Awards ceremony on December 1, 2010.
